

Sweet Matthew, Make Believe

everything is perfect in a way but not today
what could tomorrow bring even when I beg you will you please be good to me you're running free
just make believe you love me and I'll try harder than before
'cause it's a real love that keeps us coming back for more if anything anything I question can be used against my will and it will be 'til you understand the question is a cup that can't be filled by what you feel I'll make believe I love you
and I'll try harder than before
