

Sweet Noise, Believe

It's for the ones I miss
And for those who believe
For those unheard
And for the ones unseen

It's for those who're close
And for those who're away
For those who talk
And for those who don't

Each of you has got the thing
That makes you stand above them all
Each of you has got the thing
That makes you strong

It's so simple anyway
There ain't no stronger
There ain't no weaker
There ain't no better
And there ain't no worse
There are people and people
Don't tell me who you are
Who you were
Who you'll be
Don't talk as someone that you'll never be
Show me your real face
Show me the real face
It's for those who believe
For you and me

...We want to thank all those
Who stood by us, helped us and Believed in us. We wouldn't make
It without you. We want to thank
Our families, friends and the Whole crew workin' for us. You
Know who you are. Special thanks
Go to our fans and people who
Come to our gigs, the ones we met
And the ones we'll meet. Sweet
Noise's got a lot of respect for
You. Be yourselves friends!

It's for those who believe
For you and me
