

Sweet Noise, Down

Flash of sense
Released the pain
Sister, brother
Don't you go, go away
I'm scared to death
Weakened
I cross the cold land
Little pieces of faith
Like thorns cut my feet
Down, I'm goin down

Creep, walk
Back, forth
Lost faith
Hope died
Low, lower
Low, lower
Hate's strong
Pain's stronger
Night is cold
The sun went down
The moon
Outside
Shines so bright
Well, it takes me down
To a place I know
It ain't changed
My bed still's there
Sister, brother

I'm goin down

I believe in no-one
I trust myself
Sun is goin' down
