A music revolution taking place! yes man this is Teba straight yes man watch we now style ita gwaan so ey world people 6 million ways to die we ya chose non of them why babylon them have fe fall Sweet noise and Teba na go cry!

I dig this dirt for a woman and men I dig this dirt for a silent blame and the lost name
pride
love
the lost soul
who`s above you
no one just an empty money can dropping bombs on my fellow man and a screaming child
the old man stands
singing songs
of a freedom in the name
in the name
in the name of a man
U.N.I.T.Y one is fe unity
But wicked man thema killing community fugitives running
true rebel dying
they slaughter beauty
and the street still no crying I see the president spit on the holly graves nations blind following the dead trace
saw a child being trained to be a killer man tears in eyes
guns in the little hands missing brother
grave of his father
empty eyes what you`ve done to his mother
in the name
in the name of a man
Hey homosepiens hey human species
Have fe stop this war ita go break we to to pieces Tired fe see the youth wit wolipa stichies Babylon suck we blood just like stichies I gave this little moment to my self this precious little moment just for myself And I drop this angry burning words on a red doted line
guess who is lonely
I`ll dig this dirt for the woman and a man for the love and pain, and a killing will not that fucked up dirty, will to kill do know what I mean
you know...
their exploding cars
their waiting bombs
the bleeding land
the eyes that hate
I saw man killing in the name of god so high above
my world was crying
screaming child
screaming for the lie

the exploding gun
tears my beauty open
scream for me
my child
scream
scream for me...
Scream for me...
Freedom
My freedom, freedom
In the name of my man in the name in the name of my man
I demand freedom in the name of my dignity
respect, respect, respect me...
...
my screaming child...
Scream for me, scream for me
In a route this world above for you Scream for me...
My child...
uhhuhhh
