

Sweet Noise, Respect

Patience, patience I've got no patience
I've got no time for sick relations
Sword of accusations
Aimed at head of falling nations

Anger, anger tough purest anger
Eating me like cancer and hunger
Man I've gotta move, gotta put things straight
I've gotta get to you open up your head
I say you what you're doing at the side
Fucking making up mind
Man there's no shit to think about
Fucking move it shut it out

What have you done
To make me trust in you
I don't think you ever, ever
Ever gonna understand me
No you ain't gonna
No you ain't gonna
Understand me man - no way

Patience, patience I've got no patience
I've got no time forsick relations
Sword of accusations
Aimed at head of falling nations
You fool your people with
They want peace you sell'em guns
And then you fuck 'bout equality
Said then you shit 'bout equality

What you have done

We're not respectful
We're not respectful
Don't you try to fuck around
Fuck around with me
Don't you try to fuck with me
We're not respectful
No respect

Try walking in my shoes
Try walking in my shoes
Try to see what I see
Try to feel what I feel
What the fuck you're doing out there
You think you're fucking smart
Come down and take a look at me
I'll tell you story about your honor man
I'll tell you story about dignity and respect
Time's up to love each other
Time's up to respect each other
Time's up to love each other man - believe me

Respect me motherfucker
