

Sweet, Strange Girl

You're a strange girl, in a strange world
You're a strange girl, in a strange world
Try to teach you, i can't reach you
Such a strange girl, you're so strange
You can never make up your mind
By the way you wanna spent your time
You always find a diffrent place to stay
I'll open an investigation
Into the break that if communications
I'll try to reading every word i say
You're a strange girl, in a strange world
You're a strange girl, in a strange world
Try to teach you, i can't reach you
Such a strange girl, you're so strange
If thats your way of feeling really free
Loosely wrapet in a fantasie
You better find another to take my place
I'm loosing my imagination
I don't understand the situation
I got better things to do then waste my time
You're a strange girl, in a strange world
You're a strange girl, in a strange world
Try to teach you, i can't reach you
Such a strange girl, you're so strange
You're a strange girl, in a strange world
Try to teach you, i can't reach you
You're a strange girl, in a strange world
Try to teach you, i can't reach you
Such a strange girl, you're so strange
