

Sweetbox, Beautiful

I've been feeling high
I've been feeling low
Waiting for a hand to hold
Searching faces for the one to call home
But their touch just left me cold
I don't know what went wrong
Or how I've been going on
I've been spinning round and round
Running through these ups and downs
How did I end up here?
How'd I end up here?

I know that I can be stronger
But I don't wanna be strong tonight
And you don't need to make everything all right
Just make me feel
Like I'm beautiful tonight
Just make me feel
Like I'm beautiful

I've had the view
I've had the fall
Heard my doubts in surround sound
Life's let me fly
Life's made me crawl
Learned to balance on shaky ground
I don't need your rescuing
Just help me to believe again
That broken hearts can heal and mend
And people do get happy ends
How did I end up here?
Will I always be here?

I know that I can be stronger
But I don't wanna be strong tonight
And you don't need to make everything all right
Just make me feel
Like I'm beautiful tonight
Just make me feel
Like I'm beautiful tonight

Beautiful
So beautiful
I'm waiting here
Grab my hand oh someone pull me up
Cause I don't need a hero
But I don't want to be alone
Just make me feel
anything anything anything anything at all

I know that I can be stronger
And you don't need to make everything all right
Just make me feel
Just make me feel
