

Sweetbox, Don't Wanna Kill You

She's hanging her clothes in my closet (her cheap clothes)
She's sleeping on my side of the bed (I made love to you in this bed)
You're letting her live in the home that I built (it's still my home)
You got a new life and left me for dead

La la la la
I don't wanna kill you
I just wanna hurt you a little
La la la la
I don't wanna kill you
I just wanna make you cry
La la la la
I don't wanna kill you
Can I just hurt you a little?
La la la la
I don't wanna kill you
Just make you miserable like me (like me)

When she's kissing you can't she taste me? (those were my lips)
Doesn't my scent linger there? (I know it does)
A minute ago you still loved me (did you tell her that?)
Now she's living the life we used to share

La la la la
I don't wanna kill you
I just wanna hurt you a little
La la la la
I don't wanna kill you
I just wanna make you cry
La la la la
I don't wanna kill you
Can I just hurt you a little?
La la la la
I don't wanna kill you
Just make you miserable like me

How can you be, how can you happy, happy
How can you laugh, how can you smile
How can you just forget me I'm still here

La la la la
I don't wanna kill you
Just hurt you a little
La la la la
I don't wanna kill you
Can I just make you cry?
La la la la
I don't wanna kill you
Just hurt you, just hurt you, just hurt you
La la la la
I don't wanna kill you
You need to be like me, you need to be like me

La la la la
I don't wanna kill you
Like me, you need to be miserable like me
La la la la
I don't wanna kill you
Just let me hurt you a little
La la la la
I don't wanna kill you
Just make you
