

Sweetbox, Easy Come, Easy Go

Hey, I'm gonna sing you a little song.
It's not a message, just a song about life.
You know, so it goes like this:

There are times in our life
When it just don't add up
When we don't get it right
And we're fed up

Well, easy come and easy go again
It's not unfair; it's simply how it is
So easy come and go again

So he took your heart and he walked out that door
Well I know how you feel; I've been there before

Hey easy come and easy go again
It's let it rip and take it on the chin
I said easy come and go again

You've been reaching too far
You've been trying too much
You've been losing yourself
So out of touch

Hey easy come and easy go again
It's not unfair; it's simply how it is
Say easy come and go again

I said easy come and easy go again
It's let it rip and take it on the chin
I said easy come

I wanna be a big star but I'm singing in bars
So I'm not on the top, not a millionaire

Hey easy come and easy go again
It's let it rip and take it on the chin
I said easy come and go again
