

Sweetbox, Here On My Own

She doesn't smile like me
She doesn't make you weak
And she'll never know how to make you laugh
But she won't make you cry, she'll never make you cry like I used to
If you only knew the words I couldn't say

When I close my eyes I see you
In my dreams you will be near
Won't let you disappear
But I'm here on my own

When I close my eyes and listen
I am crying out for you in the center of my heart
But I'm here on my own

Ooooh

You used to hear me breathe
When you touched me deep
Can you hear the sounds?
Can you feel the heat?
I was just too scared to let you own the deepest part of me
I've left paradise
And I did not even say goodbye

Ooooooh

When I close my eyes I see you
In my dreams you will be near
Won't let you disappear
But I'm here on my own
Heyy
When I close my eyes and listen
I am crying out for you in the center of my heart
But I'm here on my own

Ooooh baby

Oooooooh

I think I'm over you
But it's not true
It's just a lie in a shade of blue
I think I'm over you
But it's not true
It's just a lie in a shade of blue

Ooooooh

(Violin outro)
