

Sweetbox, Lighter Shade Of Blue

She doesn't smile like me.
She doesn't make you weak.
And she'll never know
How to make you laugh.
But she won't make you cry
She'll never break your heart
Like I used to do.
If you only knew all the words I couldn't say.

When I close my eyes I see you
In my dreams you will be near
Won't let you disappear
But I'm here on my own
When I close my eyes and listen.
I am crying out for you
In the center of my heart.
But I'm here on my own.

ooooooooooh

Can you still hear me breathe?
When you touched me deep?
Can you hear the sounds,
Can you feel the heat?
I was just so scared to let you own the deepest part of me.
I left paradise and I did not even say good bye

ooooooooooh
(when I close my eyes and see you)
Yeah
(In my dreams you will be near)
(wont let you disappear)
No
But I'm hear on my own
(Hey)
When I close my eyes and listen
(oh)
I am crying out for you
In the center of my heart
(My heart, my heart)
But I'm hear on my own.

Oooooooooooh
Baby
No
Oooooooooh
Oooooooooh
Ooooh
I think I'm all for you
But it's not true.
It's just a lighter shade of blue.

I think I'm all for you.
But it's not true.
It's just a
Lighter shade of Lighter shade of blue.
