

Sweethearts Of The Rodeo, Hoping That You're Hoping

Every minute of the day I'm thinking bout you
And without you life is just a crazy dream
Every breath I take I'm hoping that you're hoping
That I'm hoping you'll return to me
Do you remember dear when you said
If I ever stopped loving you you'd rather be dead
Well dear I don't know what on earth changed your mind
No matter who's holding you your heart is still mine

Everytime I think about the way
You'd cuddle up and spuddle up and thrill me with your charms
I get dizzy in the head and then it's seeming that I'm dreaming
I'm locked in your loving arms
Do you remember...
[ fiddle - mandolin - guitar ]
Every minute of the day...
