

Swervedriver, Electric 77

Sail away
Over waves of electric oceans
On a clear day you'll see
Forever and back again
Caroline tunes her dial
Through electric wavebands
She will hear the sweetest hum
When the city sleeps

Take me away again
Take me away and and then
Take me away again
Stellar Caprice in flames

Circled clean round your sphere
For a year on Monday
Fly me twice around the moon
In super-stereo
Bakelite, satellite
Frisbee flight on Sunday
You have no idea
Just how far you're left behind

Take me away again
Take me away and and then
Take me away again
Stellar Caprice in flames

Caroline on a line
Through the heart of everything
She is seventeen storeys high
And lost in time
Take your time
Unidentified flying hubcabs
If I only had time
I'd never die

Take me away again
Take me away and and then
Take me away again
Stellar Caprice in flames
