

Swervedriver, Flaming Heart

Well I bin crying, lonesome
Lonesome and blue
And I bin trying lately
To get through to you
So downhearted
It's so damn true
Until you see the things that you do

Crying, baby
The waste just begun
And I bin trying lately
To see what you have done
Shake me baby
It just can't be true
When will you see the things that you do?

Choose to go
Choose to stay
Do it in your own time
And in your own way
So downhearted
To hear you say
Your flaming heart
Just won't burn away

Crying baby
Trying baby
Sighing baby
Crying baby

Well I bin crying baby
Over you
