

Swing Out Sister, You On My Mind

VERSE #1

friends say i'll get over you soon, thoughts of you come back to fill me with gloom time forgets but i'm not over you yet, there's no sense in asking why until the tears run dry.

chorus;

theres no one but you on my mind , searching for a perfect ending that we'll never find, if we can make it work this time.

verse2

years have flown by since you've been gone. this broken heart of mine 's been waiting too long all alone with out you i cant carry on..theres no sence in asking why until i 'm there by your side.

chorus:

verse3

there'd be time to do those things together things forever to last forever more and the flowers would sow .....

chorus.....

if we make it work this time there'd be no tears and askin why , waiting until the tears run dry if i can make you change your mind if we can make it work this time....always on my mind.....
