

Swing Out Sisters, Communion It's Not Enough

(decifered by michele)

Broken dreams a seething silence
No one hears
Silent screams
And poisoned lies no one shares

When life's a crime
Our time has come
For some do shun
Communion

Tears and laughter share your fears
To ease the pain
Conversation heals the wounds that we'll make

When life's a crime
Our time has come
For some do shun

Communion

In lost traditions a love worth giving
We'll find a place

Broken dreams a seething silence
No one hears
Silent screams
And poisoned lies no one shares

When life's a crime
Our time has come
For some do shun
Communion

We'll find a place for
We'll find a place
We'll find a place for
Communion
