

Swing Out Sisters, Heart For Hire

(Swing Out Song)

Every face you see is you
My memories just fade to blue
When I think of you
My disillusionment is past
Dreams never meant to last
Now there's nothing left to hide
I've disregarded foolish pride
Too many times
If you should go...
If you should go...
If you should go...
This heart's for hire
You brought me reeling to my senses
With lies and broken promises
There's no turning back
Words sad in heated moment
Leave me tormented still
I've disregarded foolish pride
Too many times
It makes no difference if I go or stay
Re-enacting the same scene over again
And again
If you should go...
If you should go...
If you should go...
This heart's for hire
This heart's for hire
This heart's for hire
This heart's for hire
