Swingin' Utters, Back To You

Well I've been to town down every road and back Drank all the pubs bone-dry in seconds flat Been to holes in walls and bathroom stalls from the states to foreign parts And I'm always left with sickness in my heart

So I'm comin' back to you To what's always right and true Comin' back to my saving grace And I'm stayin' there with you