

Swirl 360, Radio Song

Sometimes you can feel it I know.
Somedays we just feel so helpless.
Surrender your demons let go.
Get lost in the radio.
And I turn it on.
And I turn it in.
And I lose myself in the feeling.
I can be the place that you run and hide.
Somewhere you can hear it.
It goes around like a conversation.
It speaks to your spirit let it flow.
The voice on the radio.
And you turn it on.
And you turn it in.
And you lose yourself in the feeling.
I can be the place that you run and hide.
Now that I have found you.
Left the sounds around you now.
Now that I have found you, girl your on your own, I.
And I turn it on.
And I turn it in.
And I lose myself in the feeling.
I can be the place that you run and hide.
Place that you run and...
Hide
Place that you run and...
Hide
