

Switched, Like Suicide

Save me, cause I'm, watching love just slip away.
And the thoughts my own, I'm sinking so slow.
And the pain begins to grow, begins to grow.

And I've wasted, time chasing you,
cause your love's like suicide.
Forget the hurt you put me through,
Cause your love's like suicide.

Convincingly, she calls to me, her words so beautiful.
And the darkness brings, everything,
that's good right out of me, right out of me.

And I've wasted, time chasing you,
cause your love's like suicide.
Forget the hurt you put me through,
Cause your love's like suicide.

Like suicide.
And the times that change, a brand new day,
watching love, just slip away.

And I've wasted, time chasing you,
cause your love's like suicide.
Forget the hurt you put me through,
Cause your love's like suicide.
And I've wasted, time chasing you,
cause your love's like suicide.
Forget the hurt you put me through,
Cause your love's like suicide.

Like suicide, the hurt you put me through.
Your love, like suicide, with the hurt you put me through.
