

Switched, Walk Away

Version 1

i come wild with the wicked style that i bring cought up like a drug deep in my thug stream she says she wants to get it on like a sex machine but hold on cuase its my eyes that i cant believe and you waste my time with all your lies im denied cuase it aint my fault
cuase im losing control
hey ive heard it all before
before this war
its hard to believe this truth you speak hey youve headed out the door before i said walk away another verse that i put my words in rehearse tight beats with the groove that you thirst for all wrapped up on that leash you got me hanging from but its still my songs that you uh huh
and you waste my time with all your lies
before this war its hard to believe this truth you speak hey youve headed out the door before i said walk away
its hard to believe this truth you speak
hey youve headed out the door before i said walk away

Version 2

You can't deny
But I know you tried
To steal this love
From right under me

Break away the chains that hold me back so I can breathe
Break away the chains that hold me back so I can breathe

Cause it ain't my fault
Cause I'm losing control

I've heard it all before
Before this war
It's hard to believe this truth you speak
You headed out the door before I say
Walk away
Walk away
Walk away

I can't describe How you make me feel
And the tensions building Building deep inside

Break away the chains that hold me back so I can breathe

Walk away
Walk away
Walk away
Walk away

Never again
Trust you
Trust you

Never again
Never again
Never

I've heard it all before
Walk away
Walk away
Walk away
Walk away
Walk away
Walk away
Walk away
Walk away

Walk away
Walk away
