Swollen Members, Endangered Species

The original west coast rhyme riders The original west coast rhyme riders The original west coast rhyme riders The original west coast rhyme riders

It's really just elementary ugh! The turn of the century Focal point, with forced entry Force not to be reckoned with Second wind sets in Jolt of electricity Sting with synchronicity Scorpions' tail snaps Crippling simplicity Walk through the desert Warm breath Creates a sandstorm Transform Rattle Snake Strike Smell your hands warm Fangs puncture palms, venom Seeps through your veins Pain you shouldn't intervene See me on the center screen Kaleidoscope Aqua blue, turquoise And winter green Sunshine blasting Bright beams of ultraviolet, ugh! Violence sentenced, stylist Causes silence

The original west coast rhyme riders The original west coast rhyme riders The original west coast rhyme riders The original west coast rhyme riders

Temperature very low Icicle hell storm Bellows a row Between the channel of the cable And the cross bow Comes an elevation Of pressure In regards Compel a high water When all hell freezes over And breaks loose in a hand basket Idle hands Mastered my mix down Instead of slinging tools in Fallen Angel's workshop Burning the once lifted Whip in the place of galley A quick trip through the gallery And I'll see all that I need Death on a pale steed Heads on a steel blade Treads on a shallow grave Ball on a hollow acrylic frame The future flashes redundancy Do what you can to fuck the industry

The original west coast rhyme riders

The original west coast rhyme riders The original west coast rhyme riders The original west coast rhyme riders

A captain can't abandon his ship Stranded I randomly rip Rap with a strangling grip I'm mangling quick Prevails a hard rocker You're just a dangling dick That's about 3 inches At first it kind pinches Then it burns like You wouldn't believe When I get in you Any venue Mad Childs flaming You're on the menu Let's Continue First I'll send you to The fiery depths With molten core Is molding Hey, don't suck my dick just hold it I took and shook the house first We rocked it Then we rolled it I told you I was holding Four aces You should folded

I dig what I rip With greater expectations And heavy way Loaded to the teeth The dull steel hull of My fully war equipped skull Shoots down the sand bags Cancel the streak able Award winning costumes and makeup Big tops and wild villains Break up the chameleon It's to blend and devise the fabric Hybrids of natural schematics Plastic coated human Form makes them easy targets For rifle practice

The original west coast rhyme riders
The original west coast, coast, coast, coast