

Sydney Forest, Soaring

My heart is ready to beat I can feel the wind underneath my feet Im gonna jump over the moon hands in the air waving up like a balloon Im free as a bird lost in the stars and waving down to earth don't know where im gonna land but you gotta wobble before you stand Im soaring all alone and on my own Im soaring and I know my heart will lead me home

Just look in my eyes cant you see Im not the same today I can see farther now step from the edge Im making my own way dont know where Im gonna land
Im soaring all alone and on my own Im soaring and I know my heart will lead me home and I know that I am gonna touch the sky

Im soaring all alone and on my own
Im soaring and I know my heart will lead me home all alone and on my own soaring all alone and on my own im soaring all alone and on my own
im soaring all alone and on my own
