

Sydney Youngblood, Sit and wait

A years has come a year has gone still hanging tough the blues is going on fingers walk the edge walk the edge of time my heart is burning i'm ready to fly all we can do is sit and wait all we can do is just sit and wait
all we can do is sit and wait
all we can do yeah
that's what they say
sit and wait sit and wait just sit and wait I could run away touch the sun where there's a spark could be a fire impossible dreams promised still i ain't nothing i ain't nowhere
all we can do is sit and wait
all we can do is just sit and wait
all we can do is sit and wait
all we can do yeah
