

Syleena Johnson, Baby, I'm So Confused

Baby, Baby, Baby, I just don't know what to do
I fell in love again, but why, oh, why am I so blue
And darling, darling, it's all because of you
You put a hold on my heart and soul, leaving me so confused
Sweet baby, sweet baby, please have mercy on me
I've never loved anyone quite like this before.
First time you, first time me.
But I need to know, I need to know how long you plan on dragging me through
So much pain and so much hurt
It's so hard to stand on two feet
'Cause it's all, all 'bout what you're doin' to me
So why won't you love me like I need to be
You tell me you love me
Then you show me something else, but I can't blame you
'Cause you didn't know how I felt, and I don't know what to do ...
'Cause baby, I'm so confused.
Baby, I'm so confused (I don't know what to do) Baby, I'm so confused.
And baby, baby, baby I don't really wanna bother you (no no no)
But you gotta either make it right, and I mean right now
Or I'm puttin' on my walkin' shoes, yeah.
Ya see I've tried and tried to make you understand, that I'm so confused.
