

Sylvan, Hypnotized

Unavoidably sure, energized and full of life
Illuminate and persuade the souvenirs I have inside it's Immaturely pure, it proselytized me to you
Mesmerized I close my eyes and dream of things I'd like to do
Believe me I can foresee it it is so easy and now I feel it

I'm hypnotized never questioning my faith
And I'm hypnotized I'm definitely right
I'm hypnotized never questioning my faith
And I'm hypnotized or arrogantly blind

Vigorously I'm strong, perfect goals are never wrong
Faultlessly it's clear to me: the end does justify the means it's Philosophically true it explains all things I do
Elucidates the sense it makes, I never was this sure before
Believe me I can foresee it it is so easy and now I feel it

Blind I trace my way, sign the words I say what a comfort!
Try to verbalize what I have inside what a comfort!
