

Sylvan, Your Source

Do you recall all the tears that she dried,
Every soothing care- she is your source
Do you recall how she opened your mind,
Brightened up your life she is your source
Though far away you miss her
Never regret

Do you recall how the distance was clear,
Friendship of your day - she is your source
Do you recall something waiting out there,
So you went away she is your source
Your memories will burn forever
Never forget

Darkness all around you
Prophecy decides
Darkness all around you
Though once there was light
Darkness all around you
Destiny's first child
Never regret, never forget

Do you recall fading sunsets of gold,
Still you smell your home
This is your source
Do you recall how she gave you support,
Yes you know she'll stay always your source
