

Sylver, How Could I Be So Wrong

Take a chance you said i'm sure you won't regret, oh no take my hand you said heaven's closer than you know the wind beneath my wings my cure for everything only if you could sing no good for anything how could i be so wrong tell me how could i be so wrong i thought you were the theme of my song
