

Symphony X, Fallen

Alone I walk
Among the twisting shadows
Tempted by the ancient magic
The power of five
My desire to mirror my own image
And I will offer you no soul
Offer you no soul

Tonight
Darkness will shadow the light
Symmetry divine
There's no force greater
Dividing the fathers of time

Feel my hate
I'm banished to this wasteland
My serpents plot
The overthrow of your temples and shrines
In the night
My army's rage and fury
Burning my shadow into the land
Vengeance by my hand

Tonight
Darkness will shadow the light
Symmetry divine
There's no force greater
Dividing the fathers of time

Tonight
Darkness will shadow the light
Paradise denied
The balance of ages
Forever lost in time

Was I sure of my fateful wish to evoke the night from the day?
"Thousands now join as one, be afraid"
What have I done?
Clouds are dimming the sun with his wrath of disease and decay
"This masque of vengeance leads my death parade"

What have I done?
My shadow burning
My shadow burns across the land

Tonight
Darkness will shadow the light
Symmetry divine
There's no force greater
Dividing the fathers of time

Tonight
Darkness will shadow the light
Paradise denied
The balance of ages
Forever lost in time

'...and there was a need for balance,
The coming of Ma'at...'
