Symphony X, Seven

Above all - high and mighty - will like a towering steed - a Web of Conceit that I weave More...wanting much more - grasping with Envious Eyes - dark desires lead to words that cut like knives

Frozen in your tracks... No remorse Embrace the rack - Twisting down your spine ... 'till the End of Time

It's Fire and Ice - make the Sacrifice No one there to catch you when you Fall It's Shadow's and Sin - Enemies Within You'll be fine, so cross the line and Damn it all

Slip into Shades of Nothing - yesterday's promises die - More, taking more than I need to bleed you dry

Cut your throat - Abandon all Hope 'blood-money lusting' portrayal - Break the trust from dawn to dusk bring down the curtains on you final act of betrayal

Empty hands recoil... feel your Blood begin to boil Tails and Fangs or Doom - violently consumed

It's Fire and Ice - make the Sacrifice No one there to catch you when you Fall It's Shadow's and Sin - Enemies Within You'll be fine, so cross the line and Damn it all

Virtue or vice? Will you pay the price? When there's no one to catch you when you fall ...so Damn you All...

Give me hot-blooded yearning - infect and pollute all that's pure - more than my heart can endure Vengeance and Fury - Screaming and eye for an eye - lashing out in Anger I curse the sky

Demon Song is sung - first your ear ... and then your tongue - Wear this Mask of Fire - and burn for all you're desired

It's Fire and Ice - make the Sacrifice No one there to catch you when you Fall It's Shadow's and Sin - Enemies Within You'll be fine, so cross the line and Damn it all
