

Symphorce, Circles Are Broken

Why don't you rise up and tell me why be confused , set your soul free another within, ... I'm suffering inside Don't have to be god to realize will someone get out here ... alive
another within, I'm suffering inside a life in a mirror, the mindless eyes your choice will be rotten, by charming lies and soon you'll come in, the circle begins so deep inside, worlds between when fools will step in well it's written between the lines the future is painted skies so deep inside
now can you feel me
When circles are broken
Now, will the sun rise ?
These circles are broken Shine within your light Silent fears are deep inside
Now you have to ... hate me
They say god is on your side
And it's plain to see
Out of controls my role with you Pass me by Our real world has slipped away
Inner cry
What is real in the storm of the wasteland Come on over it's more than the black sand When you're touching the earth... your fate will wait !
