

Symphorce, Reveal The Secrets

Just a shadow in the dark you've seen my face before is it just a fantasy am I coming back for more can't say what's on my mind can't do what I really feel and where's the helping hand is this my final stand?

Now I will fly until the day the future dies until the morning of my life until the meaning runs beside me into my life

I always thought I'd never get caught my time draws near, what I thought was peace of mind long before I broke the rules Thinking now about my perfect crime now I'm standing in the line They come at night, they steal my dream they will reveal, they steal my secrets out of blood i'm sure you will.
The end is near captive of the empty dreams so crystal clear I feel the crumbling insane I am the lord I am the pain I hold the secrets of your life I'm out of sight Stained glass bursting in shattered my world again, they dig me out , they let me in nothing will be in between
