

System Of A Down, Desecrate (Defy You)

Let me desecrate you child
Let me penetrate your world
Let me penetrate your mind
Let me desecrate you
Dont let me desecrate you my child
Dont let me penetrate your world
And steal the warmness of your soul away
Dont let me penetrate you my child
Dont let me desecrate your world
And steal the warmness of your soul away
I divide you with faith
Provide you your soul
Defy you to love
I divide you with your faith
I provide you with your soul
I defy you with your love
Dont let me desecrate you my child
Dont let me penetrate your world
And steal the warmness of your soul away
Dont let me penetrate you my child
Dont let me desecrate your world
And steal the warmness of your soul away
I divide you with faith
Provide you your soul
Defy you to love
I divide you with your faith
I provide you with your soul
I defy you with your love
Little boy stared
To the eyes of the night
Buttons connect to the price of a time
Little boy glared
To the sheets of the night
The bullet connects to the price of his crime
I divide you with faith
Provide you your soul
Defy you to love
I divide you with your faith
I provide you with your soul
I defy you with your love
I divide you with faith
Provide you your soul
Defy you to love
I divide you with your faith
I provide you with your soul
I defy you with your love
