

System Of A Down, Peep hole

When your stars are baked,
And your rivers fly,
Do you ever believe you were stuck out in the, Sky,
When your castle breaks,
And your feet are dry,
Do you ever believe you were stuck out in the, Sky,
Do you believe, when you're high,
That your life is tried,
Don't you ever get stuck in the sky,
Don't you ever get stuck in the sky,
Don't ever get stuck in the sky, when you're high,
When your moon is fake,
And your mermaids cry,
Do you ever believe you were stuck out in the, Sky,
When your tunnel fades,
And your guide is shy,
Do you ever believe you were stuck out in the, Sky,
Do you believe, when you're high,
That your life is tried,
Don't you ever get stuck in the sky,
Don't you ever get stuck in the sky,
Don't ever get stuck in the sky, when you're high,
Don't you ever get stuck in the sky,
Don't you ever get stuck in the sky,
Don't ever get stuck in the sky, when you're high.
Don't you ever get stuck in the sky,
Don't you ever get stuck in the sky,
Don't you ever get stuck in the sky,
Don't you ever get stuck in the sky,
Don't you ever get stuck in the sky,
Don't you ever get stuck in the sky,
Don't ever get stuck in the sky, when you're high.
