

System Syn, Into My Veins

Id connect you to my veins if youd live up to your name if youd feed me your life just to see if I came and I would claim you as a spoil of war and swear that there is nothing more than you and I and the lie it took to make you hang so high and Id expect nothing more from you than to break my heart in two for just a little chance of heaven there is nothing I wont do

and you can drag me down to hell and still convince me that I fell for you and I and the lie it took to make you never tell and Id connect you to my veins
