

Systematic, Pleasure To Burn

I'm the million miles on your life
I'm the train wreck waiting that you'll never survive
I'm the hate, I'm the love
I've got the blood of a man that will take you

The dirty thought on your woman's mind
Is the man I am taking over your pride
I'm the hate, I'm the love
I've got the blood of a man that will break you
You thought you felt it all once before

I'll crawl right in
Under your Skin
To do you in
And you're a pleasure to burn

In twitching skin
Bones break again
The rush sets in
And you're a pleasure to burn

I'm The blade on your filthy skin
I'm the reason why you want it to end
I'm the hate, I'm the love
I've got the blood of a man that will take you

I'm the high that you'll never find
I'm the vein you stick just to get by
I'm the hate, I'm the love
I've got the blood of a man that will break you

I would love to call you a friend
I would love to beat you again
I am your demon inside
I am your favorite lie
Now I cannot be replaced
Now that i have found my place
