

SZA, Awkward

Time passing
Time, time passing
You wanted to know what the hype was all about
So I came back
Then we fucked a little bit and I was out
Did not say "Bye"

It was worth it, ooh, it was
I would do it again (Hey)
I know you hurt me, but (Hey)
This is more than a friendship
Now I made it awkward
Why does it let me do it?
I make it, I make it awkward
He wasn't ready for it

But can we still love on each other?
Can we still touch on each other?
Can we still not judge each other?
You know, you know
I make it awkward

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh

I can not love everybody
But you isn't anybody
You look at me different
So I let you see my body
Body, body, body
Now we don't seem to get along
Now I regret it all

Still it was worth it
I would do it again
I know you hurt me, but
It is just deeper than friendship
Now let's keep it awkward
I think we're ready for it, yeah, mm-mm
Let's keep it awkward
I know I'm ready for it, you feel me

Can we still love on each other?
Can we still touch on each other?
Can we still not judge each other?
