

T-Bone Walker, Papa Ain't Salty No More

Come home little girl, your papa ain't salty
no more

Come home little girl, your papa ain't salty no more

I need your love, and I swear I miss you so

I know I was wrong, and I know I've caused you pains

I know I was wrong, and I know I've caused you pains

I'm sorry pretty baby, I won't do that again

Why, oh why pretty baby, why did you have to go

Please come back home pretty mama

Papa ain't salty no more
