

T-Bone Walker, Street Walkin' Woman

I&#039;ve got a street walkin&#039; woman, she stays tall an twisted all the time

I&#039;ve got a street walkin&#039; woman, she stays tall an
twisted all the time

She goes to bed with a fifth of whiskey an she wakes up with a jug a-wine

She leaves home early in the mo&#039;nin&#039;, then she don&#039;t come back until the sun&#039;s goin&#039; down

She leaves home in the mo&#039;nin&#039;, an&#039; she don&#039;t come back until the sun is goin&#039; down

She&#039;s always got her whiskey up to her mouth, and her face full of ugly frown

I work hard everyday, try to make ends meet

I work hard everyday an try to make ends meet

All that woman wants to do, is keep her big feet in the street

I love my street walkin&#039; woman, she walks the avenue
up and down

I love my street walkin&#039; woman, she walks the avenue
up and down

Sometime I wish she would start ta walkin&#039;, an&#039; keep on walkin&#039; outta town