

T-Bone, Wipe Your Tears

I know the world got you down bound by the problems and troubles of life Full of strife pain and misery lookin for true peace love and happiness that you can't find in a drugs sex or hennessey but come along wit me if ya wanna hear bout the one that healed the sick and made the blind see the one that turned water into wine and multiplied the loaves and the fishes healed the lady wit the issue of blood and cured leprosy cuz even when your friends aint there and you feelin like nobody cares God's still there ready to cast all your burdens away let Him in your heart this very day and I pray that every lyric I spit will penetrate the very depths of your soul and I'm gonna let the whole world know He can make your sins white as snow now let me bust en espanol, para mexicano, o cubano panameno, colombiano, argentino, chilleno nico, ya puerto ricano, lo que to te enseno es algo que me enseñaron de pequeno wit this instrumental I'm gonna make you get sentimental cause I be knowin that your feelin what I'm talkin bout make ya wanna shout shout, let it all out out like tears for fears, I'm tryin to reach my peers and the thugs playas in the clubs and my patnas slangin drugs duckin em slugs lookin for love in a messed up world thats cold like a freezer thats why until the day I die I'm gonna preach the Word of God like the man of God they call Peter mira ahorita you might be goin through a thing or two but know that Jesus still loves you so its all good playa wipe your eyes Cuz Jesus said that everything is gonna be alright now come on down

[Chorus]

Problems, troubles trials and storms will come your way Jesus offers love and wants to wipe yours tears away

Cuz even when it seems like nobody really cares, Jesus is there and he hears your prayers and he hears your prayers

[Bridge]

don't cry the Lord replies I wanna wipe the tears from your lonely eyes its gonna be alright tonight you might be goin throught some things but joy comes in the mornin time and I pray that through this rhyme I'm touchin your mind body and soul let Him take control and I know that if you trust in God, leave your problems in his hands then everythings gonna be alright

[T-Bone]

Your cryin in the night cause you're lonely Prayin to the Lord above please hold me Somebody told me that when I'm feelin broken hearted, sad and lost in the valley you're the one to console me slowly ease the pain that I be feelin deep within free me from the life of sin cuz I'm tired of all the bangin drug slingin and playin wit the girls smokin weed and sippin on the gin I need a real friend who wont leave me nor forsake me even if the whole world hates me who makes me feel like I'm somebody special for once in my life when all my foes wanna lie and playa hate me, I seen so much drama throughout my life so many of my peers died and I wonder why I never got to say goodbye look to the sky and pray that the Lord hear my cry they say that You can set me free take away this pain and misery and deliver me from the hands of the enemy all because of the blood that You shed at calvary You gave me the gift of eternal life and now I finally see that You're the answer to all my needs so I'm down on my knees beggin Lord please forgive me from this day forward I promise to follow where ever you lead wipe my tears Lord
