

T.I. feat. Mary J. Blige, Remember Me

(Lets get em Mary)

Dont forget

to Remember me (ay dont forget Shawty)

Ill be back - so remember me

Please keep me in your heart

If we have to ever part

Dont forget me, to remember me

The king marley day martin luther malcom x

Im officially the freshest, dont dare forget Im gone

Momentairly dont bury me yet like Ali got I got the title back prepare for that

When the world needed Tip, ask where was he at?

But when he need some back - fade to black talk behind his back, you a hater for that

I dont respect noneless, in the game of chess

You think five moves ahead, and not behind

Jumped up and cheered when I got my time

Like yea, one more year I got to grind

But get me losin off your mind, Short may I remind you that there aint another who done been through what I been through

Time after time again

you better get some in you

When you said, it was over for him and you thought it

couldnt continue to floss

Heres to your memory loss, Sucka

Dont forget

to Remember me (ay dont forget Shawty)

Ill be back - so remember me

Please keep me in your heart

If we have to ever part

Dont forget me, to remember me

They say: out of sight, out of mind

9 times out of 10 men out of pocket - out of line

You do it big, everybody that you outshined

Yold lady fate talk about how he got fine

She say she tryin to get away, he say About time

Right now, we all thinkin Damn, hoping not mine.

But when its lights out for you and you locked down

Aint no telling whether or not

Your lady went and got down

With that town cause he hot now

Ripping up your love letters,

Lifting up her night gown

Right now somebody baby momma getting piped down

Kids in the next room listening Mama, pipe down

The thought hurt dont it?

But maybe shes strong enough

Or aint get that lonely cause you wasnt gone long enough

Trust, its just a temporarily setback

Its on when I get back

Please dont remember that

Dont forget

to Remember me (ay dont forget Shawty)

Ill be back - so remember me

Please keep me in your heart

If we have to ever part

Dont forget me, to remember me

I dont mean to feel like this

Dont mean to think like this

My heart just has to be sure

That the love that I give to you

Thats the love that I get from you
I need to be safe and secure
Dont forget
to Remember me (ay dont forget Shawty)
Ill be back - so remember me
Please keep me in your heart
If we have to ever part
Dont forget me, to remember me
Dont you forget about me
