

T. Rex, The Avengers (Superbad)

Superbad tiger running with your brain
Tucked beneath your arms like a devil train
When the angels from the heavens
Meet the angels from the earth
You'll hide inside your cave, that's right of course

And we know, we ain't slow, we're the avengers!

I have known lots of ladies and the ladies know me,
I've been foxy roxy punctured and I'm funky born free
You can needle treacle kiss me
With the honey from your mouth
But believe me I'm a bad moon bopster
And I'll never come in your house

And we know, we ain't slow, we're the avengers!

Dig this...

And we know, we ain't slow, we're the avengers!
And we know, we ain't slow, we're the avengers!

Dig this...
