Tab Benoit, Drowning On Dry Land

I'm going down. My nose is in the sand I'm going down, down, baby. My nose is in the sand A cloud of dust just came over me And I think I'm drowning on dry land

You know, my father told me, son don't rush to be a man You know, my father told me, son don't you rush to be a man But I went ahead on, and now I think I'm drowning on dry land

You know my mother told me the story About that li'l dog that couldn't see too well He was crossing a railroad track one day When the train cut off a part of his tail He turned around but never looked up Just to peep over the rail And she said he lost his whole head Trying to find a little piece of tail

That's why I'm going down. My nose is in the sand A could of dust just came over me And now I think I'm drowning on dry land
