

Tabitha's Secret, Blue Monday

She wanna give it all away, yeah
She say when come the rain
I get the feeling that's something more to talk about here
So I see him and earn my keep
You know then she moved away, yeah
I pray for nothing, I'm saving it all for one time

I said hold me now, be there when shit goes down
Don't try to pick my head, sometimes I don't make sense

I'm no good just believing in someone else
Would you think I were weak if I just break down
Oh, no, it's coming on again
Hold on, it won't take long
Blue Mondays, big Monday ahead

There's a remanent to me
Yeah, when it stands where I stand
Yeah, we want, nothing more of this, and
I hate, what I do to myself

I said hold me now, be there when shit goes down
Don't try to pick my head, sometimes I don't make sense

I'm no good just believing in someone else
Would you think I were weak if I just break down
Oh, no, it's coming on again
Hold on, it won't take long
Blue Mondays, big Monday ahead

I'm gonna give it all away because it's something that was nothing
Now she swears that she needed when she didn't know, anything at all
I believe her and she wants to say, well
She's more than a nothing, I say she loved ya

Well, I'm no good just believing in someone else
Would you think I were weak if I just break down
Oh, no, it's coming on again
Hold on, cuz it won't take long
Blue Monday, big Monday ahead
