

Tabitha's Secret, Swing

Still don't mean nothing
Was written on the concrete
The words weren't on my tongue cause we don't Talk about it
No day or no evening
No fashion or superman
Just little warped people, ah
With little black minds

Well I wasn't sure just what to think
Say the lights went out
Somebody, somebody swing
Don't wanna, don't wanna talk anymore
Somebody swing
Don't wanna talk no, no

What if we're tainted?
Who can we lie to?
What if we're dying? Could you just
Walk around it?

Well, I wasn't sure just what to think
Say the lights went out
Somebody, somebody
Swing, yeah, yeah
Don't wanna, don't wanna talk anymore
Bring boy can you, bring me down?
Can you swing?
Don't wanna, don't wanna talk anymore

Shut your violence
Keep your head down
Watch your anger, boy
Realize you couldn't lose

This is violence
Look for reason
This don't have to make sense, to anybody at all
Then everybody wants to swing

No still don't mean nothing
Words, written all, over the concrete
All over the concrete
And the rage gets you out so you swing

Don't wanna, don't wanna talk anymore
Bring boy, can you, bring me down?
Can you swing?
Don't wanna, don't wanna talk anymore
I don't wanna talk no no no no
Can you swing? Yeah, yeah, yeah
Don't wanna, don't wanna talk anymore
Bring boy, can you, bring me down?
Can you swing?
Don't wanna, yeah, don't wanna talk anymore
