

Tacere, I Devour

The man with a hollow heart. His life was torn apart
Thus he takes devotion from the ones like you.
He will entwine you with illusions of love.
He will make you feel alive, for the first time in your life

The one addiction, your true affection
Hopeless hearts bleeding for his desire
Increasing sickness, unceasing weakness
This pitch black night is your compromise

The man with a blinded mind.
Felt love of the cruellest kind.
Thus he drains himself affection from the ones like you.
He will enfold you with delusions of lust.
He will make you feel things you've never felt before in your life.

I beg forgiveness, you are my frailty

Beg forgiveness, beg for mercy

Fear me, fear my rage
I fear you already, make me fear more
I warn you, I will burn you
You burn me already, hurt me more
I am slowly dying

The one addiction, your true affection
Hopeless hearts bleeding for his desire
Increasing sickness, unceasing weakness
This pitch black night is your compromise
