

Tad Dreis, Wonder What You're Doing

It's nine o'clock and you're asleep
I wonder what you're doing
You move a lot and sigh so deep
I wonder what you're doing

I've never seen you dream
Before the hour of three
I hope you weren't always
Waiting for me

It's nine o'clock and you're asleep
I wonder what you're doing
You move a lot and sigh so deep
I wonder what you're doing

Your hands are balled up tight
You forgot about the light
Nothing in this room
Is quite right

You turn over, open your eyes
Say hey, baby
Smile and sigh

I sit beside til ten
By then you're gone again
I hit the light
And still I'm wondering

It's ten o'clock and you're asleep
I wonder what you're doing
You move a lot and sigh so deep
I wonder what you're doing
