

Tad Morose, I Know Your Name

So much higher and in too deep
Make believe is what I believe in
I stalk you now, but what if I leave
Don't ask me to carry you further

You don't mind, do you if I watch you sleep?
You know, your secrets are all safe with me
Temptation and to you I creep
What I leave will carry you further

I know you, I know your name
Before we start this game
Just one more thing to say
Control makes all the same
I know your name

You don't know do you? I know who you are
It's such a thin, thin line that keeps us apart
As I near you I know what to do
No more secrets and no more delusions
