If it was my last day on Earth
If it was my last day
If it was my last day on Earth
If it was my last day
If I close my eyes
And the sun don't rise
Will I be okay?
If it was my last day on Earth
If it was my last day

If it was my last day on Earth
I wouldn't be in church
I'm sorry God but it's my last day in this universe
I need to see birds and buzzin' bees green grass, evergreen trees not seeing people who have been mean to me

And why would I,
waste my time?
All my favorite people need teary-eye goodbyes
Talk, laugh, hug and give a bunch of hard high-fives
I did my best man
I gave this thing a good try

If it was my last day on Earth
If it was my last day
If it was my last day on Earth
If it was my last day
If I close my eyes
And the sun don't rise
Will I be okay?
If it was my last day on Earth
If it was my last day

Wait, wait, wait
You're tellin' me
I got 24 of these 60 minute things left
Damn, I ain't get to be a billionaire yet
Fly around first class
Private jet, flex
Use a black Amex get up out the duplexes
Buy a Lexus
Take a road trip
To a spaceship
Uh, and I'mma get on Blast up in the sky
And I'mma get gone
Gave up too much just to see one more dawn

If it was my last day on Earth
If it was my last day
If it was my last day on Earth
If it was my last day
If I close my eyes
And the sun don't rise
Will I be okay?
If it was my last day on Earth
If it was my last day
