

Take That, Windows

I've been through a year of madness
Replaced my hope with sadness
Found waking up the hardest

And every day, it felt the longest
All blessings were unwanted
Constantly haunted

Then you opened up
Opened up my windows
Yeah, you opened up
Opened up my windows
Like fire in the sky
You know what it's like
Was so glad to feel the sunlight in my eyes

I've been through a year of hurting (Badly)
Bad guesses and wrong turnings
The memory still burning (Inside)

And the lights are all at red
Should I leave or stay in bed?
Didn't practice what I preached
So I just shouted, "Help me"
"Help me"

Then you opened up
Opened up my windows
Yeah, you opened up
Opened up my windows
Like fire in the sky
You know what it's like
Was so glad to feel the sunlight in my eyes

Ready now to start this climb
See the beacon way up high
If I fall or lose my way
Please come and get me, get me

You opened up
Opened up my windows
Yeah, you opened up
Opened up my windows
Then you opened up
Opened up my windows
Yeah, you opened up
Opened up my windows
Like fire in the sky
You know what it's like
Was so glad to feel the sunlight in my eyes

You opened up
Opened up my windows
Yeah, you opened up
Opened up my windows
